"The Journey We've Taken"

We have spent the past four years at Middleborough High School; looking back, we realize life is not spent in years, but in moments. We have had countless moments together: sharing laughs, tears, and experiences. "The Journey We've Taken" expresses the time that we have spent and the road we've traveled.

As our senior year comes to an end, we can see a bend in the road ahead of us. We cannot see what is beyond it, but we know something is waiting for us. As we look to the future and start our journey forward, we can always look back on these words and pictures and see them as the passage leading to the rest of our lives.

"The Journey We've Taken" is about who we are, where we've been, and where we're going.

Mrs. Katherine Flaherty, Principal
Faculty & Staff: 120-Enrollment: 962

My heartfelt congratulations to the Class of 2006. Your successes were not just measured by your classroom achievements but also by your character and compassion as evidenced by your efforts to assist the less fortunate in our community.

You are leaving Middleborough High School with your diploma as a building block from which you can now take the next step on your educational journey.

Our hope is that your experience here has taught you to seek happiness in whatever circumstances life deals you and to meet inevitable problems and even sorrows with courage and optimism.

Don't be afraid to dream. Believe in your abilities! Dare to make the most of every challenge.

I wish you the best as you work toward achieving your dreams.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Sullivan, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 2006:

Soon the school and community will gather together to celebrate your graduation. The Class of 2006 can be proud of all that it has given to the school and community. You have led your school and brought acclaim for your generosity, talent and leadership.

Your student government, theater and art accomplishments are recognized as some of the best high school programs in the state. Your teachers, coaches, advisors and families know the depth of your generosity and good deeds. You have made a positive difference at Middleborough High School for four years. You will be missed greatly by those you leave behind. I wish you happiness and good fortune. I would also like to thank you for the kindness and assistance you have given me.

Sincerely yours,

Katherine C. Flaherty
Principal, Middleborough High School

Powder Puff & Pep Rally

In November, the Senior girls and Junior girls play a friendly game of Flag Football against each other. The Senior boys and Junior boys then act as the cheerleaders for the girls by creating cheers and performing a halftime show. In MHS tradition, the Senior girls defeated the Junior girls 15 to 7. A bonfire was held afterwards to honor the Senior football players and Senior Cheerleaders.

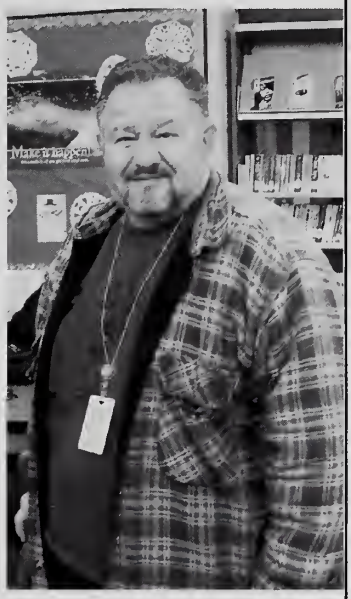
Peter Sgro



The yearbook staff would like to acknowledge Peter Sgro for his dedication to the 2006 yearbook. Peter graciously volunteered to take hundereds of photos for the sports, clubs and activities sections of this year's yearbook. He traveled to away games, endured the cold of all the football games and never hesitated to say "yes" when asked to cover an event. We truly appreciate all he did. A sincere thank you to Peter, we couldn't have done it without him.

Jon,
You have brought such joy to our lives!
We have laughed a lot-
and laughed loud!
Stay in the shadow of His wings.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Brandi Helmuth

I enjoy student council, playing piano, singing, and composing/writing my own music/lyrics. My ambition is to go to college, with a double major in psychology/pre-med, and start my own clinic. During high school I participated in student council, SADD, yearbook, cheerleading, swimming, diving, senior one acts, That's Entertainment, and concert choir. I want to thank my mom, dad, brother, and the rest of my family for always being there when I ceased to believe in myself. My advice to the underclassmen is by Abraham Lincoln; "And in the end, it's not the years in your life that count, It's the life in your years."

Speech and Theatre Workshop

STW is a group of over 200 students that are interested in many of the different aspects that theatre has to offer. Over the course of the year, students work on several different productions including a fall show, the Massachusetts High School Dram Festival, and "That's Entertainment" in June. There are opportunities to learn about every part of the production process from acting to set design, costuming, make-up, sound, lighting, tech and directing.

DECA Inc. is a national organization. Middleboro DECA is the local chapter. Students study marketing and business management in the classroom. They compete at the local, state, and national levels. At competition they are given business situations that they may come across in the real world. They are then asked to devise a plan to address the situation and present it in a role-play to a judge (usually local business people). Students earn recognition on the local, state, and national levels. Hundreds of thousand of dollars in scholarships are at stake, but everyone comes out a winner!

Fire Science interns report to the Middleborough Fire Station every other day for 2 blocks. There, they receive classroom and practical instruction in all aspects of the fire service and learn what it takes to become a firefighter. This year students participated in a live burn. They suited up in firefighter's gear and reported to a house fire, which was fully engulfed. They walked away with more knowledge and respect for the fire department for the dangers that they face.

The interns are suited up and ready to go into the burning house.

The 2005 Varsity cheerleading season was truly one of the best. With a talented squad of over 20 girls, working extremely hard, practices began in July and continued throughout the summer. They attended a two day cheerleading camp that left them breathless. As school began they practiced every day and attended weekly games. In November, they attended a competition and placed 5th, thus improving their record from the previous year. The squad worked very hard and it showed throughout their performances.

Record: 9-2-0

The 2005 Sachem Football team enjoyed their best season in more than a decade. Led by a strong senior class, Middleboro dominated their schedule, leading to an impressive 9-2 record. The potent offense, averaging 25 points per game, was led by senior captain Ryan Muirhead, 1,166 yards, 20 TDs, junior QB Justin Wilson, 1,505 yards passing, 14 TDs, and receiver Keith Gross, 557 yards receiving, 9 TDs. The stingy defense held opponents to an average of 13 points per game and was anchored by senior captains: Brendan Moquin-LB, Nick St. Germain-SS, Matt Nelson-DE, and Chris Corsino-C.

Go Sachems!

Nick St. Germain blocks an unlucky Fairhaven defender.

Varsity/JV Girls Soccer

The 2005 Girls Soccer season was both fun and eventful. Senior captains Kelly Muirhead and Barbara Murphy and seniors Leah Easterbrooks, Kristin Davis, Chrissy Niven, Megan Devereaux, and Katie Mansir led the Sachems with great spirit and effort. While the final record (5-12-1) just didn't turn out as the team had hoped, there were many high points. These included an early season win over league rival East Bridgewater, and finishing the season with 2 wins including a victory over league-leader, Silver Lake.

Golf

The golf team, lead by tri-captains, James Baroncelli, Scott Cowan and Chris Hill, had a revolutionary year. This was the first year the team had full-length home courses: Poquoy Brook, LeBaron Hills, and The Lakeville Country Club. Next year the team hopes to make just one of these courses its official home course in order to improve their record.

Sachem volleyball, the other "Big Dig", realized a very important goal in 2005. By posting an 11-9 record, Middleboro qualified for the M.I.A.A. Div. 2 tournament. Along with their qualifying, Middleboro was honored with the Team Sportsmanship Award from the Patriot League. The volleyball team was lead by senior captains Leeann Prakop, Lauren Howes, Amanda Marcotte, and Melissa Driscoll. Underclassman Colleen Grinham, Jamie Andrade, and Courtney Larrivey also played key roles in the team's success. Middleboro placed two players on the All-Star team. The selections were Amanda Marcotte, and Colleen Grinham.

Ice Hockey

With the deepest team in the school's short history, the MHS ice hockey team had high hopes in its fourth season of varsity competition. The Sachems played well in the tough Patriot League, and were led by senior captains, Scott Cowan, Jon Priestly and Matt Nelson. Other senior leaders included Josh Smorczewski, Cole Pike and Tom Perko.

Varsity/JV Girls Basketball

The 2005-06 Middleboro Sachems girl's varsity basketball team was led by senior tri-captains Barbara Murphy, Chrissy Rea, and Stephanie Hills. Chrissy enters the season as the team's leading scorer, netting over 140 points in her varsity career. Players who have gained playing experience at the varsity level are Courtney Larrivey, Nina Carvalho, Lindsey Hills, Chrissy Niven, and Stacy Sullivan. Courtney averaged about 7 points per game in her freshman season and is on pace to score over 500 points in her career. Newcomers at the varsity level include Jesse Davey, Emma Harnett, Jackie Kefalis, Lauren Tierney, and Moira Twigg.

Varsity Boys Basketball

This was the year that competitive basketball returned to Middleboro High School. Led by varsity veterans, young exciting new players and a new coaching staff and philosophy, the Middleboro High boys basketball team climbed out of the cellar and into the hunt for the divisional league title. Senior Captains Stephen Dudek, Justin Schuler and Eric Shelters led the team on their best campaign in over three years and hopefully have set the tone for years to come.

Girls and Boys Swimming and Diving

In the 2005-2006 season, the boys and girls both finished strong. The girls had a record of 8-3-0 while the boys had a record of 9-2-0. Captains Leah Easterbrooks, Emily Leonard, Jess Perry and Ashley Sherrick supported the team and helped them achieve many victories in their new league. Emily Leonard, Matt Fahey and Brendan Cavallaro all qualified for Sectional diving while Brendan also qualified for State diving. Ashley Sherrick, Jess Perry, Rebekah Akusis, Leah Easterbrooks, Theo Smith, Dan Beals, Matt Fahey and Sam DiJune will be going to Sectionals for swimming while Jess Perry and Theo Smith qualified for States as well. New school records were made by Brendan Cavallaro and Jess Perry.

Wrestling

This year the wrestling team had to rebuild after losing many key players in 2005. Many newcomers were added to the roster. Although they started the season needing to rebuild, the teammates learned quickly and made up for it with hard work and dedication. Many personal victories were attained. This year senior captain Mike Ohrenberger and junior captain Brendan Stephenson worked hard assisting the underclassmen to prepare the team for next year.

Winter Track

Winter track continues to strive against tough competition in the Patriot League. Senior captains Lindsey Craig, Alicia Farrell, Kelly Muirhead and Brent Turner, as well as junior captain Mike Cunningham, collaborate their skills to help the team succeed. Girls shot put has been very challenging at the league meets, and at the Class C Relays where they received first place against thirty-one other teams.

My Dear Brendan "Buddy",

The journey you have taken us on has been fun filled and action packed. You always strive to be the best at school or on the playing field and it has paid off by shaping you into the fine young man you have become. Two parents, two sisters, could not be prouder to call you "son" and "brother" and will always be there to love and support you. As you continue on life's journey our wish for you is happiness and continued success and the knowledge that Jesus is taking the journey with you.

Congratualtions on all your achievements.

Hurricane Katrina

HERFF JONES®

Hurricane Katrina became the eleventh-named storm of the Atlantic hurricane season. It was the largest hurricane of its strength category ever recorded and caused massive devastation along the coastlines of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

Protective levees that retain Lake Pontchartrain are breached by the storm surge, flooding 80 percent of New Orleans.

As Katrina enters the Gulf of Mexico, more than 1.2 million people along the Gulf Coast are ordered to evacuate.

Five months after Katrina made its second landfall as a Category 1 storm just north of Miami, Fla. After weakening briefly to a tropical storm, Katrina gained momentum in the Gulf of Mexico and was upgraded to a Category 3 hurricane.

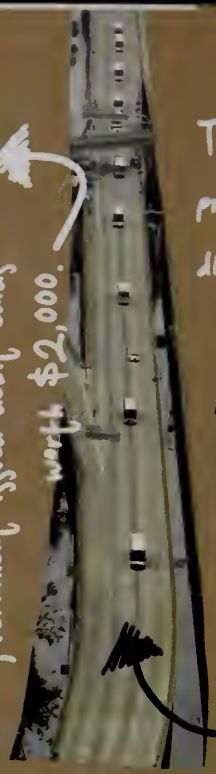
The deadly storm formed over the Bahamas and first made landfall as a Category 1 storm just north of Miami, Fla. After weakening briefly to a tropical storm, Katrina gained momentum in the Gulf of Mexico and was upgraded to a Category 3 hurricane.

On August 29 Hurricane Katrina makes landfall on the Louisiana coast with sustained winds of 125 mph and a 25-foot storm surge.

Winds rip off a large section of the Louisiana Superdome's roof as 10,000 people seek refuge inside. In the days that followed, 60,000 people gathered at the Superdome, surviving on limited food supplies and no electricity or running water.

Two weeks after the storm, more than half the states provided shelter to the estimated 2 million people displaced by Katrina.

Two weeks after Katrina made landfall, an estimated 7,000 refugees staying at the Houston Astrodome receive government-issued debit cards worth $2,000.

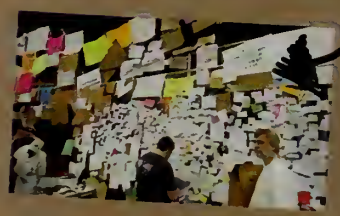


For several days, authorities evacuate thousands of people from shelters throughout New Orleans. Safety concerns and unsanitary conditions at the Superdome caused citizens to desperately plea for help on national broadcasts. Eventually, they were transported by bus to the Houston Astrodome in Texas. Officials said Texas took in nearly 154,000 evacuees across the state.

Consumers fear a gas shortage and race to the pumps as prices soar to nearly $5 a gallon in some parts of the country.

Casino resorts in Biloxi, Miss. and New Orleans suffer heavy damage as a result of Katrina.

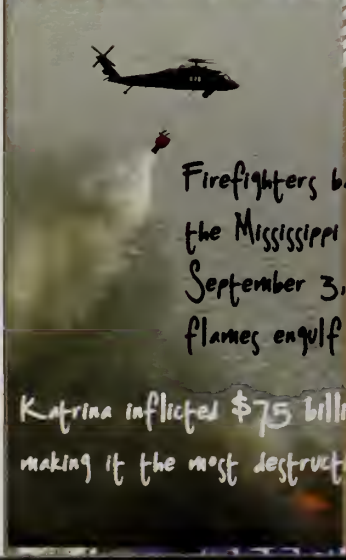
Evacuees post messages inside the Houston Astrodome in search of missing loved ones.



Before their preseason game against the Oakland Raiders, New Orleans Saints players observe a moment of silence for those affected by Katrina.

Within four weeks of the storm, hurricane survivors were registered in all 50 states and almost half the United States zip codes.

According to the Federal Emergency Management Agency, insurance claims in the Gulf Coast totaled $23 billion in storm damages.



Firefighters battle two fires along the Mississippi River waterfront September 3, where 50-foot flames engulf an industrial district.

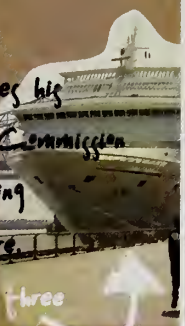
National Guard troops from across the country help curb violence and looting, establish order and rescue thousands of stranded residents in New Orleans.

Katrina inflicted $75 billion in damage on the coasts of Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama, making it the most destructive and costly natural disaster in U.S. history.

Reconstruction costs from Katrina and Rita were estimated to be at least $200 billion.

On their way to the playground, students in Biloxi, Miss. walk past rubble and debris left by Katrina.

In the wake of Hurricane Katrina, New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin releases his "Bring New Orleans Back" Commission plan aimed at rebuilding the city and its culture.



A $236 million FEMA deal with Carnival Cruise Lines is under scrutiny as three ships that are more than half empty float in the Mississippi River and Mobile Bay.

On September 8, Congress overwhelmingly approved a $51.8 billion emergency spending bill for hurricane relief efforts.

In New Orleans, the Army Corps of Engineers arranged for the pick-up, recycle and disposal of nearly 1,600 refrigerators per day.

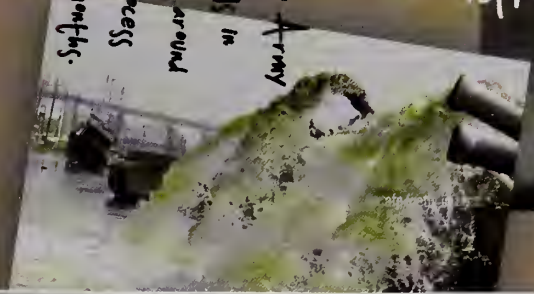
As water continues to rise in New Orleans, heavy-duty helicopters drop giant 3,000-pound sandbags into broken levees.

Five months after Katrina hit the Gulf Coast the death toll stood at 1,418. An additional 3,200 people were still unaccounted for in January, ranking Katrina among the deadliest hurricanes on record.

The owners of St. Rita's Nursing Home in St. Bernard Parish, La. were charged with multiple counts of negligent homicide when the bodies of 34 residents were found after apparently drowning.

Governor Kathleen Blanco of Louisiana testifies before a U.S. Senate committee and seeks aid for rebuilding parts of the state damaged by hurricanes Katrina and Rita.

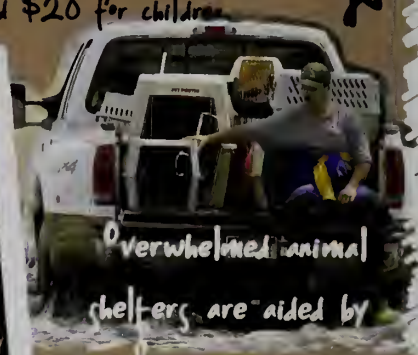
To drain New Orleans, the Army Corps of Engineers brings in pumps and generators from around the nation. The draining process took approximately three months.



Just weeks after Katrina, Hurricane Rita develops in the Gulf of Mexico, forcing a re-evacuation of New Orleans. The storm surge overwhelmed the levee walls, reflooding parts of the city.

Hoping to revive the tourism industry, Gray Line New Orleans offered bus tours of Katrina-devastated areas. Seats for all three daily tours sold out. Tickets cost $35 per adult and $28 for children.

Women of the Storm urge members of Congress to visit the Gulf Coast and witness the massive devastation.

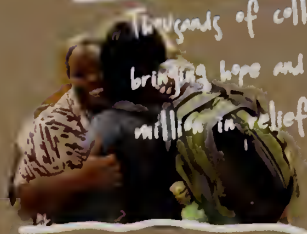


Overwhelmed animal shelters are aided by good Samaritans across the country who donated their time and money to house pets and livestock displaced by Katrina. More than 100 volunteers per day helped to care for and reunite these animals with their owners.

The struggle and stories of 2,000 Katrina survivors were documented by researchers at Harvard University to track their recovery for government policy makers.

Sheet metal is put in place and will be covered with concrete to form a new floodwall in New Orleans.

Thousands of college students return to campus in New Orleans, bringing hope and jobs back to the area. Congress approved $200 million in relief funds for Gulf Coast area colleges.



Johnny Wilson, 9, raised $30,000 for hurricane victims by swimming 1.4 miles from Alcatraz to the San Francisco shoreline.

The five-mile bridge over Lake Pontchartrain that links New Orleans and Slidell, La. reopened on January 6.

In the clean-up and rebuilding efforts, $118 million of FEMA assistance was distributed, 2 million cubic yards of debris were removed, and nearly a half million free meals were served before December.

A sign of strength and hope is posted outside a home in Waveland, Miss.

Students return to school in temporary classrooms throughout devastated areas.

According to the American Red Cross, Hurricane Katrina destroyed 275,000 housing units on the Gulf Coast.

In addition to other corporate donations already made by Herff Jones, Inc., the profits from this supplement will be donated to the American Red Cross.
